Response to Amendment

1. The amendment filed on May 23, 2003 has been entered. Claims 1-8, 11-15, 20-23 are pending in the application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Rejection of claim 5 under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1-8, 11, 12, 20, 21, 23 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Booher (US 5,156,787) in view of Miyamoto et al (US 6,001,440) for the reasons of record as set forth in Paragraph No. 6 of the Office Action mailed on February 27, 2003 (Paper No. 15).
6. Claims 13-15, 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Booher (US 5,156,787) in view of Miyamoto et al (US 6,001,440), as applied above, further in view of Nakamoto et al (US 6,098,612) for the reasons of record as set forth in Paragraph No. 7 of the Office Action mailed on February 27, 2003 (Paper No. 15).

Response to Arguments

7. Applicants' arguments filed May 23, 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

(A) Applicants argue that Miyamoto et al cannot remedy Booher because Miyamoto et al relate to a thin film material; and Miyamoto et al do not mention clutch material or even a friction material.

The Examiner respectfully disagrees with this argument for the reasons of record as set forth in Paragraph No. 8 of the Office Action mailed on February 27, 2003 (Paper No. 15).

(B) In response to applicant's argument that Miyamoto et al is nonanalogous art, it has been held that a prior art reference must either be in the field of applicant's endeavor or, if not, then be reasonably pertinent to the particular problem with which the applicant was concerned, in order to be relied upon as a basis for rejection of the claimed invention. See In re Oetiker, 977 F.2d 1443, 24 USPQ2d 1443 (Fed. Cir. 1992). In this case, Miyamoto et al is reasonably pertinent to the particular problem with which the applicant was concerned.

(C) In response to applicant's argument that the examiner's conclusion of obviousness is based upon improper hindsight reasoning, it must be recognized that any judgment on obviousness is in a sense necessarily a reconstruction based upon hindsight reasoning. But so long as it takes into account only knowledge which was within the level of ordinary skill at the time the claimed invention was made, and does not include knowledge gleaned only from the applicant's disclosure, such a reconstruction is proper. See In re McLaughlin, 443 F.2d 1392, 170 USPQ 209 (CCPA 1971).

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
